

JBI Comprehensive Systematic Review Training Program 2019

The UCSF JBI Centre is committed to advancing patient and family care by teaching JBI comprehensive systematic review (CSR) methods. The CSR workshop will enable learners to transform a particular clinical problem/interest into a systematic review that can be used to support global health efforts.

Weeklong workshops cover the following:

Module 1: Introduction to Evidence-based Health Care and the Systematic Review of Evidence. This module is a prerequisite to all other modules.

Module 2: Systematic Review of Quantitative Data

Module 3: Systematic Review of Qualitative Data
