

ME 'N ME
MATE

Cobbers for Africa!

In our on-going drive to support healthcare in Africa the Joanna Briggs Foundation presents a unique night of traditional Australian entertainment

'Me 'n Me Mate' are two Aussie mates who present Australian ballads, songs and yarns by some of Australia's finest writers including Banjo Paterson, Henry Lawson, CJ Dennis and others. This entertaining, knock-about performance is jam-packed with Aussie humour and dinky-di spirit.*

Your patronage on this great night will raise funds to help support African health professionals develop their skills and provide education, training and resources in the provision of evidence-based healthcare.
